Albany Racial Trouble Brings More Arrests

By DON MCKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — Albany Negroes, with 300 of their race in jail for staging demonstrations, tried today to desegregate a bus terminal and police made 10 new arrests.

Seven youths and three girls entered the cafe of the Trailways bus terminal. Some were served coffee before officers arrived and placed them under arrest.

Police pushed some of the youths from the cafe.

R. B. Hamontree, the station manager, said he made no comment when the group entered the cafe but served coffee to five of them. There were no whites present.

Police Chief Laurie Pritchett personally supervised the arrests. Apparently it was Pritchett who sent word by an officer a few minutes later to close the cafe.

The officer told Hamontree, "he wants it closed—close it down."

There were 10 Negro youths sitting in the waiting room usually reserved for white persons as crowds gathered in the vicinity of the Trailway terminal.

Several hundred white persons lined one corner of the intersection on which the station faces. On another corner there were small knots of Negroes, also numbering several hundred. Pritchett marshaled his forces—about 40 officers—on another corner.

A court hearing for nine "Freedom Riders," recessed Wednesday when Negroes staged a demonstration in front of city hall, was to resume this afternoon.

The nine were arrested Sunday night, along with two Albany Negroes, when they attempted to desegregate the railroad station facilities.

Butane Blast Demolishes Home

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — R. D. Forrester of near Lincoln, 20 miles southwest of here, was reported in satisfactory condition here Wednesday night after being burned when a butane gas tank exploded, demolishing his house.

Lincoln Fire Chief Harry Yates said Forrester and his wife, who was not injured, were alone in the house at the time. Forrester was hospitalized at Prairie Grove.

Yates said it was believed the explosion occurred after the butane tank developed a leak.

No damage estimate was available.

Annual Star Banquet for Newsboys of All Papers to Be Held Tuesday Night

Hope Star's annual Christmas dinner for newsboys of all daily papers circulating in the Hope trade area will be held at 7:30 Tuesday night, December 19.

Distributors of other dailies in Hope, Fulton, Washington, Emmet, and Prescott, are asked to report to The Star office not later than Monday how many white and how many Negro carriers expect to attend.

Dinner for the white carriers will be held in the main banquet room of Diamond Cafe, with Leonard Ellis, local insurance manager and former managing editor and circulation manager of The Star, making the annual address.

Negro carriers will be dined by one of the Negro church organizations, under arrangements being made by George (Boots) Smith, Jr., Star pressman, with the speaker to be announced. Negro carriers will meet at The Star Building at 7:30 and be taken to the dining place.

Won't Escape Prosecution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Delinquent taxpayers who voluntarily come clean won't necessarily escape prosecution, Internal Revenue Commissioner Mortimer M. Caplin said Wednesday.

But, he said, the Internal Revenue Service will carefully consider all the facts before deciding whether to recommend prosecution. And he indicated that those who voluntarily disclose violations will be in better shape than those who try to cover them up.

Caplin urged all delinquent taxpayers to settle up before the service's new automatic data processing system catches up with them.

Caplin's statement was prompted by reports that delinquent taxpayers who voluntarily report the fact will escape any prosecution.

Special Garrett Church Program

"From Bethlehem to Calvary" will be the name of the program that will be held at the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church Sunday night, Dec. 17 at 8:30 under the direction of Mrs. Lyle Allen. The public is invited.

Old Liberty Service Sunday

Services will be held Sunday at Old Liberty Methodist Church at 10 a. m. with Rev. Joo Jones, Hope, doing the preaching. Services will be held every first, third and fourth Sundays at the church.

Man Held for Bigamy Is a Woman

GRADY, Ark. (AP) — David Reginal Van Rippy, 29, jailed in Arkansas since Aug. 1 as a man charged with bigamy turned out to be a woman.

Dr. A. H. Rollins, the prison physician discovered the difference when he performed a physical examination Wednesday which is routine with all newly arrived prisoners.

Van Rippy was taken to the prison Monday after pleading guilty to bigamy charges in Monroe County. She was arrested Aug. 1 in Kansas City, officials said, and extradited to Arkansas on a complaint from her "second wife."

Names of the "wives" were not available. In each of the marriages, officials said, Van Rippy was the husband.

Questioning by prison officials showed that Van Rippy was the mother of two young sons who have been adopted.

She told officers her father is living in St. Petersburg, Fla., and her mother is dead.

Her first marriage, she said, came in 1953 at Morrilton, Ark., and the second in Monroe County. She said she was under the impression that a divorce had been granted in the first marriage.

Officials said she was interviewed upon arrival at the prison and assigned to the men's barracks. Later a prison trustee became suspicious when Van Rippy refused to remove her clothes in front of the other prisoners.

A short time later the physical examination was conducted and Van Rippy was found to be a woman.

They Really Got Plenty of Publicity

NEW YORK (AP) — The last thing John Edwards and Michael Unger wanted was publicity. So what did they get? Publicity.

John and Michael, both 17, were playing hooky Wednesday from at least two classes at Manhasset High School. They figured they could cut a gym class and a study period, take a tour of the United Nations, and then get back to their school on Long Island.

They bought public tour tickets like everybody else, but Edwards happened to become the one-millionth visitor to the U.N. in a 12-month period.

Edwards was given the VIP treatment — including newspaper shots, press photographers, luncheon in the delegates' dining room, and a private tour of the premises.

Unger, No. 999,999, got in on the honors too.

It was great sport, but very embarrassing after the lads returned to school before afternoon sessions ended.

A school official reported by phone to Mrs. Edwards that her son had a "fantastic excuse" for his absence.

Mrs. Edwards said she considered her son's experience "absolutely hilarious," but quickly added she did not approve of his cutting classes.

Their big vein to see the U.N. James Shuffield, Mr. Thomas and Clarence Geist, all Baptist.

Paul Klipsch will record the program.

U. S. Sanctions Attacks on Katanga

By DENNIS NEEDL

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP) — Indian bombers and Swedish jet fighters swept over Elisabethville today to bomb and strafe Katanga troop positions.

Newsmen watched the attack from the roof of the Prince Leopold Hospital, which was damaged Wednesday night by mortar bombardment.

The jets screamed out of heavy clouds toward Katanga township, a district in the southern outskirts of Elisabethville where the main Katanga army headquarters are believed to be located.

They appeared to drop bombs from about 6,000 feet.

There were heavy concentrations of troops and vehicles in the district.

It was not immediately known what the damage was.

The attack, following up a similar raid Wednesday on the Katanga-occupied Hotel Lido, came after a call by President Moise Tshombe for a shower of poisoned arrows on the United Nations forces threatening his secessionist regime.

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Backed by the United States and the entire Asian-African bloc, Acting Secretary-General U Thant was expected today to press U.N. action against the Katanga government despite Britain's call for a cease-fire.

Thant told British Delegate Sir Patrick Dean he would turn Britain's cease-fire request over to his Congo advisory committee. But it was expected the British demand would be rejected in view of the overwhelming support for the U.N. operation in the Congo province.

The cease-fire call widened the split over Congo policy between Britain and the United States, which declared the move was not feasible until "minimum U.N. objectives" are obtained in Katanga.

The 9-nation Asian-African group unanimously approved a declaration hailing the U.S. stand on Katanga and throwing full support behind Thant.

Group chairman Mehdi Vakil of Iran said the group decided in a closed meeting to express appreciation for both the material and moral support given the U.N. forces.

In a reference to Britain and France, Vakil said the group had voiced deep concern at lack of cooperation from some permanent members of the Security Council.

Britain's memorandum calling for a cease-fire said Britain was alarmed over "the course of military events of the last few days, which they found difficult to understand in the light of the acting secretary-general's assurance that the objectives of the United Nations forces are to restore freedom of communications and to defend themselves."

The Soviet Union and the United States in a separate move set the scene for new disarmament negotiations by proposing that the General Assembly ask a new 18-nation committee to start disarmament talks urgently and report back by June 1.

After months of private discussion, the two major powers submitted a joint resolution to the main Political Committee proposing that eight nonaligned nations — Burma, India, the United Arab Republic, Ethiopia, Nigeria, Brazil, Mexico and Sweden — be added to the 10 nations that previously talked disarmament without getting anywhere.

On Sunday at 10:55 a. m. the Christmas Cantata "The Manger of Bethlehem" will be presented under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Gosnell, by the Adult Choir.

On Sunday at 5 p. m. the annual Candlelight and Joy Gift program under the direction of Mrs. Haskell Jones will be presented.

Taking part in the program will be Mrs. Gosnell, organist; Lance Jones, all the nursery children; Joey Keesey, Marynell Branch, all primary children, Roy Allison, Jan Ellis and the Junior Choir of young people.

Colorado School Bus Train Collision Kills From 20-30 Students

Group Formed to Give Help to Katanga

NEW YORK (AP) — A committee was formed Wednesday to aid Katanga, the Congo province now battling a United Nations force.

The new group is called an American Committee for Aid to Katangan Freedom Fighters.

It said it intended:

"To mobilize maximum public support for a Katangan fight for self-determination.

"To vigorously protest illegal United Nations action against Katanga, and the United States air logistical support of this action.

"To supply the freedom fighters in Katanga with all aid—political, material, relief and otherwise."

Among the 81 sponsors of the committee are Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., former governor Charles Edison of New Jersey and J. Bracken Lee of Utah, retired Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, former American Legion Commander Martin B. McNeally and William J. Buckley Jr., editor of the right-wing National Review.

Chairman of the committee is Dr. Max Yergen, Negro educator and author.

Yergen in 1948 resigned as executive director of the Council on African Affairs in a split with a faction he called pro-Communist.

The new committee said the Katangans were "being overwhelmed by external powers which are bent on coercively subjecting them to a centralized regime."

The regime referred to, it added, has "proved its incapacity to govern and has failed to successfully resist Communist penetration."

Other sponsors include Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, Brig. Gen. William H. Wilbur, Adm. Ben Moreell, all retired; Spruille Braden, former assistant secretary of State and professors from 17 universities and colleges.

On Sunday at 10:55 a. m. the Christmas Cantata "The Manger of Bethlehem" will be presented under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Gosnell, by the Adult Choir.

Says State Should Welcome Newcomer

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller of Morrilton, chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, said Wednesday night Arkansas should welcome newcomers to the state to face its challenge.

Speaking to the Garland County Bar Association, Rockefeller also urged the association to counsel young Arkansians to remain in the state to "share in its bright future."

Rockefeller said he has noted a "rising sophistication in Arkansas with the people shaking off an inferiority complex and standing with pride in their state."

He said he's noticed that many leaders of the state's development are outsiders who saw Arkansas as a land of opportunity.

At Least 14 Are Rushed to Hospital

GREELEY, Colo. (AP) — A school bus was struck by a streamliner passenger train in northern Colorado today and at least 20 persons were killed.

Coroner Ross Adamson said 20 bodies were taken to a temporary morgue in Greeley. Apparently all the dead were children.

A number of children were taken to a hospital in Greeley. Adamson said he was told there were 30 children on the bus.

Sheriff's officers said the driver of the bus apparently escaped serious injury and was given shelter in the county jail.

No Surprise Fulbright Is Running

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Political observers expressed no surprise Wednesday with the announcement that Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., will run for re-nomination in next year's Democratic primary.

The senator's office staff notified news media of the action following the end of a 10-week, 50-county speaking tour by Fulbright.

Prior to the start of his stump-ing tour, Fulbright, who heads the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he would seek re-election "if the people want me."

"A promising threat of opposition from either Gov. Orval E. Faubus or Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., prompted Fulbright's hurry to up-campaign which came nine months before the primary election.

Both prospective Fulbright opponents have been highly critical in recent months of stands taken by the senator in the fields of foreign relations and keeping the military out of politics.

While Alford has been by far his most vocal opponent, Faubus has continually hammered away at the country's foreign policy.

Fulbright has mentioned neither by name in any of his campaign speeches.

The Wednesday statement said:
"During the past 10 weeks Betty (Mrs. Fulbright) and I have visited more than two-thirds of the counties of Arkansas. After the first of the year, I shall visit the other counties. The response to our visits has been encouraging.
I and I shall be a candidate for the Democratic nomination in the primary next summer."

Grandma Moses Dies at Age 101

HOOSICK FALLS, N.Y. (AP)— Grandma Moses, the spirited 101-year-old primitive artist whose work has appeared on 100-million Christmas cards, died 12 days before Christmas.

Grandma, who achieved worldwide fame after taking up painting in her late 70s, suffered from a chronic heart ailment.

Her health gradually faded at a nursing home, the Hoosick Falls Health Center, where she had been since July.

But on her 101st birthday, Sept.
7, the spunky, 100-pound farm woman vowed: "I'm going to live to be 200."

She was alone with nurses
when she died at 3:15 p.m.
Wednesday, her physician, Dr.
Clayton Shaw, told newsmen.

She had been in an oxygen tent
most of the day, the doctor said.
Grandma recently expressed a desire to go home, he said, but she was "sort of indifferent to her surroundings lately."

Only a few weeks ago, however, friends had described her as "bright as a button" most of the time, despite her confinement and doctor's orders against painting.

In death as in life, she attracted the attention of people from all walks of life. Telegrams expressing condolence streamed into her family home at nearby Eagle Bridge, where she had worked.

Grandma Moses was born Anna Mary Robertson on a farm near Greenwich, N.Y. She went to work at 12 as a hired girl, and at 27 married Thomas Salmon Moses. They settled first in Virginia but later returned to upstate New York.

The couple had 10 children. Her husband died in 1927.

Later in life, her doctor ordered her to give up farm work.
She chose as a hobby the weaving of pictures out of yarn. Eventually, arthritis made it impossible for her to hold a needle.

Grandma then turned to painting. Her first materials were some discarded paint she found in a barn on her farm. She never took an art lesson.

Remove Bed,
Sleep Better

BOSTON (AP)—The Statler Hilton Hotel here has been requested to remove the beds from a number of rooms so 34 guests could sleep in them more comfortably.

The request was from the sponsors of a Korean orphans' choir, touring the United States and Canada.

The 34 children in the choir—ranging in age from 8 to 12—have never slept in beds and they refuse to get the habit now.

They carry their own sleeping bags and crawl into them each night in preference to luxurious comfort.

ment, not a gift."

Bitter Cold Loses Grip on Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unseasonable cold weather held a tight grip over most of the northern and central sections of the nation today from the Rockies to New England.

There was a little relief from the biting cold in the snow-covered sections of the Midwest.
Temperatures, which dropped to zero and far below in 10 states
Wednesday morning, moderated.

But they were below the normal levels as the season's longest cold snap continued.

The mercury plunged to below zero again this morning in parts of North Dakota and Nebraska but ranged from zero to 10 above in South Dakota, some 20 to 30 degrees higher than Wednesday

Voting Machines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A petition seeking to place a constitutional amendment on the November, 1962 ballot to legalize voting machines in Arkansas was withdrawn Wednesday from the at-

Gen. Jack Holt Jr. said one of the petition's sponsors plans to rewrite and resubmit the petition later next month.

Flu Outbreak in U.S. Is Very Likely

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A lot of people on an island off the coast of Alaska and in Potosi, Mo., have the flu, and chances are the United States faces a siege of it.

"These outbreaks are occurring right on schedule—this is about the time for them to start," a spokesman for the Public Health Service said in Washington. "The service predicted some time ago there will be a considerable increase in flu cases this winter."

"This spread faster than any flu outbreak I can remember in 38 years of practice in Potosi," said Dr. George S. Cresswell, county health officer. "It hasn't produced severe cases and many of the children are almost well now. The virus is just starting to hit the adults. The children are hit first, then the adults, then the old folks."

Potosi's schools closed Monday when 800 of the 2,400 pupils were absent and will not reopen before next week. Potosi is a mining town 55 miles south of St. Louis.

Another outbreak was reported 80 miles southeast and across the Mississippi River at Wolf Lake, Ill. Only 133 of the 325 high school pupils attended classes Wednesday. Flu was reported on the increase on the Missouri side of the river at Cape Girardeau.

The Coast Guard sent a cutter with vaccine to the village of Hydaburg on Prince of Wales Island along the Alaska coast 80 miles west of Ketchikan.

Thomas Burdon, principal of the Hydaburg school, radioed for help and reported 100 of the 250 residents are ill. The town has no

U.S. Won't Investigate Hot Springs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Apparently the Justice Department won't investigate gambling in Hot Springs, Ark., after all.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Herbert J.
Miller said Wednesday he had advised Dr. William E. Brown of Little Rock, executive secretary of the Arkansas Christian Civic Foundation, that the matter is closed.

Miller was contacted after Brown announced on Tuesday that the Justice Department had agreed to a foundation request for a probe of the Hot Springs situation.

Brown said Wednesday he had not received word that the matter had been dropped. He said he planned no further action.

Brown turned to federal officials after the foundation got nowhere in pushing for a state investigation of Hot Springs gambling.
The Justice Department said
Brown apparently thought the city of Hot Springs was in a federal park and under federal jurisdiction.

Earlier Wednesday, Gov. Orval
E. Faubus said he had no objection to a federal investigation of Hot Springs. Faubus has taken the position that law enforcement at the spa is a matter for local officials to handle.

Albany Warns Negroes of Disorders

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—Albany police warned more arrests would be made today if—as expected—Negroes resume their anti-segregation demonstrations.

Since Sunday, 555 Negroes and 5 white persons have been arrested in this southwest Georgia city.
More than 300 remain in jail.

There has been no violence and little tension in the two days of mass demonstrations resulting but from the arrest Sunday of two Albany Negroes and nine "Freedom Riders" out to test segregation on intrastate transportation facilities. White residents of this city of 56,000 have shown little close-range interest in the incidents.

The warnings of continued arrests came from Police Chief Laurie Pritchett after 200 Negroes, including many teen-agers and children, were jailed Wednesday night as they marched in protest of earlier arrests.

Indications were that more demonstrations would be staged as the trial of the Freedom Riders group resumes in Recorder's Court.

The wholesale arrests brought from one Negro leader a charge that "a police state" exists within the city. The charge was made by M. S. Page, secretary of the pro-integration Albany Movement.

Page said the Negroes who had been arrested had done nothing more than "walk the streets and pray."

Earlier 81 Negroes were herded into City Hall after refusing to half a kneeling and singing demonstration on the sidewalk in front of the building. All but one city of 56,000 have shown little close-range interest in the incidents.

Recorder Abner Israel imposed a five-day jail term on Slater King, a grocer, for contempt of court since 1952.

the group, is a member of the Albany Movement's executive committee.

Police jailed 267 Negroes Tuesday for marching and singing in protest of the arrest of the Freedom Riders group. They were charged with disorderly conduct, obstructing traffic and failure to obey officers. The same charges were levied against several others.

Those jailed Wednesday night were charged on three other counts—unlawful assembly, parading without a permit and unlawfully congregating on sidewalks.

Former ABC Director Ill

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Ell W. Collins, who was director of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board under former Gov. Francis Cherry, is ill at a Little Rock hospital. His condition was reported as serious but slightly improved today. Collins formerly lived in Jonesboro, but has been a resident of Little Rock for 25 years. He was head of the state Employment Security Division under the late Gov. Carl E. Bailey.

The first public building in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, the 290-year-old Fort Christian, has been designated a National Historic Site.

Miss Verne Parider
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ponder of Hope, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Verne, to Hampton Lee of Laneburg. Both will graduate in 1961. The parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee. The wedding will be an event of Dec. 22 at 8 p.m. in the home of the bride. No cards will be sent.

Junior Daffodil Garden Club

The Paisley Junior Daffodil Garden Club met Friday, Dec. 8 in the school auditorium. The president, Glenn Warren called the meeting to order. Peggy Rowland led the group in singing accompanied by Charlotte Moore at the piano. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary Donna Byers. Richard Sallee led in the club pledge, after which the president turned the meeting over to the sponsors, Mrs. Gordon Bayless and Mrs. Jud Martindale. Mrs. Harold Brents told a story entitled "The Star." The sponsors then gave out Christmas corsages. Refreshments of cold drinks and cup cakes were served.

WCSA Has Union Meeting

The Union meeting of WCSA met at the Methodist Church Dec. 11 at 2 p.m. The meeting was opened with the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. E. P. Young Jr. presided during the business meeting. Mrs. R. B. Moore, and Mrs. Max Bolan presented a program on "New Testament References to the Coming of Christ other than the Traditional Ones." Taking part were Mrs. C. V. Nunn and Mrs. Cecil Weaver. Miss Rankin, director of music at Hope H, presented the girls' Glee Club in a program of Christmas Hymns.

The traditional Christmas story was read by Mrs. Lloyd Guerin. Each verse of scripture was read preceding the singing of a corresponding stanza from a hymn. The meeting was dismissed with prayer offered by Mrs. Rufus Sorrells.

Joe Browns Don't Plan to Rebuild

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It will be a family Christmas for the Joe E. Browns, who are putting together the pieces of their shattered lives.

"Joe and I will spend Christmas in Bradenton, Fla., with our daughter and her four children," reported Mrs. Brown. "We had Thanksgiving with our other daughter and her family here in Tarzana. We'll have New Year's in Pittsburgh with young Joe (general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates).

"We also celebrate our wedding anniversary on Christmas Eve. It's 46 years this time. Forty-six years and I haven't hit him yet!"

This may give you an indication of the spirit with which the Browns are recovering from the loss of all their belongings in the Bel-Air-Brentwood fire Nov. 6. Joe E.'s personal bravery is well known. He has a tower of strength in his wife, the former Kate McGraw.

Joe was in the East for TV appearances when I called Mrs. Brown for their Christmas plans. She gave me a rundown on how they are faring since the disaster.

"We were watching the fire when it seemed far away," she recalled. "Then it exploded like a torpedo. We had to run for our lives. I came out with a house-dress and a pair of mules. Joe with a sport shirt and slacks."

"Naturally Joe was upset about myself, I never put much stock in the mementoes which he had spent a lifetime collecting. As for personal possessions. My one big loss was the collection of first-edition juvenile books, which cannot be replaced."

"Our friends have been very generous. One friend turned over her house to us, even put her dogs in a kennel so we could have ours with us."

"Amazingly enough, strangers have been sending Joe money—a dollar, five dollars. We've been turning it over to the parish priest to help other families caught in the fire."

"We sold our lot—after paying property taxes that were due on the house I'm too old to face rebuilding. We bought another house in the same neighborhood, and I'm furnishing it now. Nothing grand—We're simple people and just want something the grandchildren can bounce around on."

"Joe took it very hard, but he'll work out of it. I don't need all those gold plaques to remind me what a great man he is."

"I think I'll give him a little wooden plaque myself. It'll just say, I think you're wonderful."

"I think you're wonderful."

"I think you're wonderful."

Ernie Kovacs Empties His Pockets

Television in Review
By FRED DANZIG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ernie Kovacs emptied his pockets again Tuesday night.

Out tumbled an invisible miniature motorcycle, an assortment of ape masks, a leaky rowboat in a tunnel of love, a telephone with a built-in finger for dialing, a carpenter who drilled through a plank and, ugh, into a man's skull, a golfer who missed the ball on the girl's nose and clubbed her . . . ugh, again.

There was a segment devoted to TV Westerns, past and future, and a haunting, anti-romantic visual interpretation of a romantic symphonic composition that was complete with used tea bags, a kitchen sink and transparent plumbing.

There, briefly, is an attempt to catalog and describe the indescribable, ABC-TV's fourth "Ernie Kovacs Special" of the season.

Ernie, the Jack Gelber of network TV, obviously put a great deal of thought and effort into the staging of the segments. He also sent a great deal of water flowing through the studio.

Of course, the cliché we use for a Kovacs show is that it grips out attention, we keep our eyes glued to the tube, even for the commercials, because we don't want to miss the next bit. Unfortunately, as each vignette came and went Tuesday night, I found myself thinking, "Ah, now for another. Maybe this one will be better."

I liked some of the stuff—the telephone with the finger, the little motorcycle going through a cake. But I still don't like Ernie's sick skull-cracking obsession. His attempt to satirize TV Westerns was tired and unfunny. Wayne and Shuster, Steve Allen and others beat Ernie to the punch and they did the job better.

The most distinctive part of the show was the part where we saw one actor slip and fall while making an entrance. Everyone in the scene broke up and Ernie called it off. The scene was done over.

Since this was a taped show—never in a million years could they do a half-hour collage like this live—I appreciated Ernie's decision to leave the slip-up in the show.

I suspect he did it because he sensed that a genuine laugh was needed. Ironically, the laugh was not in the script for the intricate electronic tango that Ernie stepped off Tuesday night.

I end my report with the traditional complimentary closing about these weirdo Kovacs shows: Keep trying, you nut. Even when you flop, you make it interesting.

Dialing and Filing: Alan King used his spot on "The Garry Moore Show" Tuesday night to perform, as he put it, a public service. For his comedy routine, King wheeled out a display of popular health foods and ogzed his own calorie-rich scorn upon the whole concept. It was a remarkable interlude and he didn't let up at the finish, either. He meant it.

Another look at "Ichabod and Me" leads me to conclude that the Norman Rockwellian picture of small-town New England life fails to project because the sets and faces used in the show still aren't as stereotyped as the dialogue. When everything matches, as in "The Real McCoy's," then the series scores.

Fortunately "The Red Skelton Show," with guest stars Amanda Blake and Maurice (Doberman) Gosfield, proceeded at a fluff-minute pace Tuesday night. I say fortunately because the fluffs were funnier than the script.

The moral of Tuesday night's "Dobie Gillis" episode—expounded with the subtlety of a twist dancer—was, "Don't play it safe, don't play it cozy, let your reach exceed your grasp." I guess that applies to everyone but producers of such TV shows as "Dobie Gillis."

The Channel Swim: Max Liebman, the pioneer TV producer of "The Broadway Revue" and "You Shows of Shows," has signed with CBS-TV to develop a new comedy hour.

Bob Hope, whose 10th annual Yuletide tour of overseas military bases will take him to Newfoundland, Labrador and Greenland, will present the filmed highlights as his NBC-TV special for Wednesday, Jan. 24. Accompanying Hope on the trip are Jayne Mansfield, Dorothy Provine, Anita Bryant and Rosemary Franklin, holder of the "Miss World" title.

Fulbright Will Ask Re-election

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., plans to run for re-nomination in next year's Democratic primary. Political observers were not surprised by the announcement Wednesday.

Fulbright heads the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee. His office announced his plan to run after Fulbright completed a 10-week, 50-county speaking tour.

Stephens Blasts Bobcats Out of Tournament

By VINCE FOSTER

The Hope Bobcats were ousted from the Marvella Tournament by a fast, quick Stephens squad by the score of 56-41. Using a full court press throughout the game, they jumped to an early lead and held on to it until the final buzzer.

Trailing 14-10 at the first quarter, the Cats were outscored 13-4 in the second and found themselves on the sort end of a 27-14 score at the half. Hope trailed 41-23 going into the final period, and finally overcoming the press they outscored the victors 18-14 in that period, but were left behind 56-41 at the final buzzer.

Jeffery Powell was high with 13, and Porterfield scored 11. McLarty and Roberts had 5 each. Russell had 4, and Hatfield 3 to complete the scoring. Middlebrooks led Stephens with 17.

This gives the Bobcats a 4-2 record, having lost the last two games after defeating Arkadelphia twice and Gurdien and Prescott once each. The next Bobcat game will be with Stamps in the Christmas Tournament in Jones Field House. Stamps was knocked out of the Magnolia Tournament last night by El Dorado.

Mantle Signs for Raise to $80,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Mantle, slugging outfielder of the New York Yankees, signed his 1962 contract with baseball's world champions today. Terms were not given, but it was estimated he will receive $80,000, an increase of $5,000 over last season.

Roy Hamey, in announcing the signing of Mantle, said his salary "has reached Ruth's level." At one time, Babe Ruth was paid $80,000 a year, indicating this is now Mantle's pay.

Hamey said he would open negotiations Thursday with Roger Maris, the other half of the Yankees' M&M combination.

Maris is known to have set his sights on equaling Mantle's pay. However, informed guesses are $65,000 to $70,000.

Mantle was the first of the world championship Yankees to sign for 1962.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

Red Wings Seek to Extend Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Red Wings seek to strengthen their precarious hold on fourth place in the National Hockey League tonight, taking on the lowly Boston Bruins in the only activity on the NHL schedule.

The Bruins, who have won only one of their last 12 games and five all season, got a 2-2 tie in Chicago Wednesday night, breaking a four-game losing string.

The tie, a comeback effort by Chicago, pulled the Black Hawks to within one point of fourth-place Detroit, idle Wednesday night.

Chicago overcame a 2-0 deficit with both its goals in the last period.

Providence Week Away From Test

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Providence Friars, winning solidly if not spectacularly, are still a week away from their first of two big tests in a bid for ranking near the top of the nation's college basketball teams.

The defending NIT champions, boasting one of the nation's biggest front lines, takes on touring San Francisco Friday, then next week makes a trip to DePaul and Xavier of Ohio.

That trip marks the first big hurdle for Coach Joe Mullane's ambitious team. The Holiday Festival in Madison Square Garden the following week is the second.

So far the Friars have been playing — generally — just good enough to win. The only exception on their unblemished 4-0 record was a 75-51 rout of Mount St. Mary's. The next largest margin of victory was seven points, Wednesday night's 80-73 triumph over Brown.

Duke, the only other ranked team in action Wednesday night, got a phenomenal shooting performance from Art Heyman in a 76-69 victory over previously unbeaten South Carolina.

Heyman hit on 16 of 19 field goal attempts and all seven free throws in racking up 39 points.

Another outstanding shooting exhibition was turned in by Holy Cross' Jack Foley. He scored 43 points in the Crusaders' 106-79 romp over little St. Anselm's.

Kansas Goes to Houston for Sat. Game

HOUSTON (AP)—Coach Jack Mitchell of the Kansas Jayhawks flies into Houston today to speed up preparations for Saturday's Bluebonnet Bowl game with the Rice Owls.

The Jayhawk squad that will help Mitchell make his debut as a bowl game coach will arrive 24 hours later.

Bluebonnet officials, while preparing to greet Mitchell, expressed hope the nationally televised game will be played before a capacity crowd of 70,000 at Rice Stadium.

Two planes will bring the Kansas squad and official party to Houston Friday afternoon. Two more planes will complete the airlift from Lawrence with the 125-piece Kansas band.

A downtown parade and a Kansas-Rice bonfire rally formally launch the bowl game weekend Friday night.

Alabama Grid Team Bitten by the Bug

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—A tiny bug has accomplished what ten big football teams had been unable to do this fall—it put a big chunk of Alabama undefeated and untied football team flat on its back.

Nineteen members of the national championship team were put to bed with a virus infection Wednesday.

It's a mild illness but it put a crimp in drills for the Crimson Tide's New Year's Day date at Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

Dr. W. C. Baty Jr., team physician, kept 10 players in the University Infirmary overnight. The other nine were confined to dormitory beds.

Baty said they would miss practice today but would be allowed to go back to work Friday.

All of the ill players live in the same dormitory but Baty said there was no indication of widespread infection.

"I think this thing is under control," he added.

All of the ill players are receiving medicine to combat nausea and diarrhea—the two most common symptoms—and all are on a strict diet. A few of the students ran temperatures a degree or two above normal.

Tuscaloosa, Ala. (AP)—The Crimson Tide of Alabama, which meets Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1, was plagued by injuries Wednesday as 19 players were bedded by a virus.

And the weatherman continued to hamper the Razorbacks where a Fayetteville thaw made the practice field soggy Wednesday, forcing the Porkers indoors for the third straight day.

Coach Frank Broyles was hopeful of getting some fresh air workouts today but wouldn't make a bet on it.

Ten of the 19 Alabama players hit by the virus were admitted to the university infirmary Wednesday but officials said none was believed seriously ill.

Doctors said those hospitalized would probably be released today and all should be able to rejoin the squad for Friday's practice.

All the affected players live in the same dormitory and food poisoning was suspected at first but the team's physician, Dr. W.C. Baty Jr., discounted this possibility.

Fans Worried at Romance of Defender

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Faithful followers of CBS' "The Defenders" may be worrying about the state of the budding romance between Kenneth Preston, the young lawyer of the series, played by Robert Reed, and Joan Miller, the student social worker, played by Joan Hackett.

Miss Hackett has not appeared in recent episodes and the boy in the series has several times shown himself to be greatly attracted by other girls.

Last week Miss Hackett turned up—and received fine critical notices—as a young nun in "Come Again to Carthage." One could draw romantic inferences from that. Monday night Joan was playing a frightened epileptic on "Ben Casey." It won't be long before she turns up on the home screens—as a Mexican narcotics addict in a "New Breed" episode.

None of this means that Kenneth Preston loves Joan Miller less, however. It just means that a steady girl friend can be a drag to writers of a TV series who like their characters flexible. The senior lawyer Preston had a wife in the pilot film of the series, but he became a widower when the program was sold.

Mostly it means that Joan Hackett is an extremely talented young actress and—because she is not under contract to the series—is free to accept any other roles she chooses.

After a four-month absence, she will turn up again as the love interest in Saturday's episode of "The Defenders."

Joan, in her mid-20s, is a Long Island girl—who still commutes to work from Elmhurst—and started

"Apple Torte" is especially economical to make now with apples in season and it will stay fresh until the last crumb. This recipe for "Apple Torte" was developed by Rita Martin, director of the International Milling Company — Robin Hood Flour Test Kitchens.

Apple Torte

(This is a Robin Hood Pre-sifted Flour recipe)
2 cups cut-up apples
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup Robin Hood All-purpose Flour
1 cup sugar
1 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1 egg, well beaten
1 tsp. vanilla
3 tbsp. melted butter
MIX — cut-up apples and nuts together in large mixing bowl.
SPOON — flour (not sifted) into dry measuring cup.

POUR — measured flour onto a square of waxed paper.
ADD — sugar, soda and salt to flour (not sifted) and stir well to blend.
ADD — blended dry ingredients to apple and nut mixture and mix well.
COMBINE — beaten egg, vanilla and melted butter.
POUR — over dry mixture and mix thoroughly. Batter will be stiff.
SPREAD — in a buttered 9-inch square pan.
BAKE — at 350 degrees for 45-50 minutes.
SERVE — topped with whipped cream or fluffy hard sauce.
* If you use Robin Hood pre-sifted self-rising flour (sold in some sections of the country) omit salt.

Description of recipe: A fruit torte with a rich nutty flavor that stays moist until the last crumb is enjoyed.

To Trial for Plot to Kill Kennedy

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Richard P. Pavlick, 74, of Belmont, N.H., says he is ready to stand trial on a charge of plotting to assassinate President Kennedy.

Pavlick was arrested a year ago in Palm Beach, Fla. Pavlick told officers who found several sticks of dynamite in his car and motel room he planned to kill Kennedy because of "the underhanded way he was elected."

Pavlick has been held at the Federal Prison Medical Center in Springfield, Mo., under a law that permits an accused person to be held until he is mentally competent to stand trial.

Woman Recovers Part of Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Helen Allison of Indianapolis, Ind., who lost $11,400, two days after being married when her husband left her with the money, recovered $6,690 here Tuesday.

Federal Judge Gordon E. Young ordered U.S. Marshal R. Beal Kidd to pay that amount to Mrs. Allison.

Beal took the money into possession last Jan. 27 when John Raymond Van Buskirk, 38, of Cleveland, Ohio, was arrested at Pine Bluff. He had the money with him when he was arrested and accused of fraud.

Van Buskirk was convicted on the charge June 9 at Knoxville, Tenn.

Mrs. Allison testified Van Buskirk, whom she later divorced, duped her of her life savings and then left her.

The federal government described Van Buskirk as a person who met women through lonely hearts clubs, married them and then defrauded them of their money.

us look like Scrooges." As Santa, arrayed in red suit and white whiskers, stood at the bar of justice, with his missus alongside him, Squire William Oettinger, 38, said: "This is very embarrassing."

The squire went on: "I've never had anything like this in my court before. Having Santa Claus arraigned, I mean. It is most upsetting."

Santa just stood silent, smiling wide, now and then folding Mrs. Santa's hand in his own.

His lawyer did the talking: "Your honor, my client shouldn't be here. Plainly, he is without guilt or guile. What crime is he charged with? I'll tell you — simply wanting to do good for children. Reinous, isn't it?"

After listening to both prosecution and defense, the squire hastened to say: "It gives me great honor to discharge this defendant. This is the last place in the world I'd look for him. Employment, indeed! Everybody knows Santa gives, that he doesn't take." He shook hands with Santa and wife.

Sieger, who has been Santa to thousands of children at the store in the last three years, is a building superintendent.

"I have a great love for children," he said, "and I'd probably play Santa even if I didn't get paid for it. The happiness of the kids is pay enough."

Suggests a Meter to Check Worth

By HAL ROYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Sometimes many a boss goes home after a difficult day feeling he hasn't earned much money for his company. It haunts his evenings.

Sometimes many a hired hand goes home with the same realization, but it doesn't always ruin his enjoyment of the twilight family meal.

But there is a way that a boss can make a personal profit during his working hours. This is to price his time by a meter as a potential parking space does to a visiting auto.

The boss can do the same thing with persons instead of motor cars. But he must vary the price of moments and hours clocked on the meter by the value he places on the time different visitors are worth in terms of his own measure of their importance.

Here is how this idea works: As soon as you come into his smiling or frowning presence, you see a busy executive fronted by a large and serious meter.

The meter is a sophisticated one. It accepts paper currency as readily as it does coins. It automatically rejects checks and credit cards, letters from old friends, slaps on the back—anything except cash.

It has attached to it a large and conspicuous sign that reads: "My time is valuable and here are the rates you must pay to use it. Please put your money in the meter in advance."

Asking for raises in salary, ordinary employees, $1 a second.

Asking for raises in commissions, top salesman only, $1 a minute.

Ex-girl friend who wonders why she didn't recognize how wonderful you were in college when gee! you're so wonderful now—boss turns meter off.

Life insurance salesman explaining why boss needs more protection—50 cents a minute, or one-half of his first year's commission, if he succeeds in selling the boss more.

Discussion with boss's uncle, the chairman of the board, on why the firm needs fresh talent—boss puts own money into meter.

Discussion with three after-luncheon fellow golfing executives—five cents an hour. Boss puts in first nickel. Meter ticks on unpaid for next three hours.

Talk with junior executive—he puts in 15 cents to get meter back in business. Boss then raises rate to $1 a minute as he assures junior executive he has great future in firm.

Someone comes in with an unexpected sales order—boss turns off meter, takes order, silently debits own sales manager for $187 in meter repairs.

A gentleman from Internal Revenue Service is announced—the boss throws his coat over his meter, stretches out a shirt-sleeved hand and says, "My time is your time—I hope I'm joking."

Finally, just before quitting time, the boss's wife enters. She inserts a key into the parking meter by the desk of the boss, removes the contents, counts it, puts money into her oversize purse and says:

"George, you didn't do as well as yesterday. How many times do I have to tell you that time is money? Come, dear, it is time to go home. Tomorrow will be better."

Promotions to ESD Employees

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Employment Security Division announced Tuesday promotions of three ESD employees.

Terry A. King was promoted from assistant business manager to business manager, succeeding R. O. Rainwater who retires Dec. 31.

Nicholas J. Bass was named assistant business manager. He formerly was internal audit officer. M. P. Fillatreau, head of unemployment insurance benefits, was also named assistant director of operations in addition to his current duties which he will retain.

King has been with the ESD 11 years, Fillatreau for 22 years and Bass seven years.

Memorial Fund Oversubscribed

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Officials of the Prior Evans Memorial Fund drive reported Tuesday that its $1,000 goal had been oversubscribed by $310.55.

The fund was established in honor of Evans, dean of Arkansas sports officials, who died earlier this year.

Farrell Conner, fund chairman, said the extra money will be used to buy more expensive scoreboards for the Arkansas College gymnasium.

It was determined at the outset of the drive that the money would be spent for twin electric scoreboards for AC gym. Conner said the board should be installed before the Scots' Jan. 2 game with Union University of Jackson, Tenn.

Racial Riots Hang Over Albany, Ga.

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—A threat of renewed racial demonstrations hung over Albany, Ga., today in the wake of a parade by marching, singing Negroes in support of desegregation of a wide range of public facilities in the city.

More than 200 Negroes were arrested Tuesday when police intervened in their parade around City Hall where nine "Freedom Riders" and two Albany Negroes were on trial.

Marching three abreast and chanting "We want freedom, we are not afraid," the demonstrators were detained in the jail yard behind City Hall. Many were high school and college students.

All were charged with disorderly conduct, obstructing traffic and failing to obey police orders to disperse. Bonds were set at $200 riders who had traveled from Atlanta to Albany by train to test integration in intrastate transportation facilities. They are being tried separately and arguments in community voted to continue their demonstrations but city officials than seven hours when court re-warned that demonstrators would run the risk of additional arrests. Police Chief Laurie Pritchett said about 1,500 spectators—nearly 1,000 of them Negroes—had gathered by the time he ordered the marchers arrested.

"Our policy will be to see that the peace and quiet of the city are maintained," Pritchett said. "We are here to see that we have no violence and no riot. The arrests would be made whether they're white or black."

Mayor Asa Kelley said he was afraid that if demonstrations continue they would provide an invitation to white persons and Negroes from throughout southwest Georgia to come to Albany and engage in violence.

Albany, with a population of 56,000, is the largest city in southwest Georgia.

The 11 on trial are facing the same charges as those lodged against the demonstrators. Arrested Sunday outside the Albany conduct, obstructing traffic and failing to obey police orders to disperse. Bonds were set at $200 riders who had traveled from Atlanta to Albany by train to test integration in intrastate transportation facilities. They are being tried separately and arguments in community voted to continue their demonstrations but city officials than seven hours when court recessed Tuesday. In New Orleans, La., a pro-integration group called for action from President Kennedy in the wake of the arrests. The Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., in a telegram to the President, termed the action "revolting and barbarous."

A controversy over labor union civil rights policies broke out anew at the AFL-CIO convention in Bal Harbour, Fla. George Meany, federation president, and A. Philip Randolph, Negro president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, accused each other of breaking an agreement to try to keep debate over the issue from getting out of hand.

Randolph repeated charges that the federation is dragging its feet in accepting integration and job equality for Negroes.

Meany said the AFL-CIO, while deficient in efforts to end racial bias in unions, is making steady progress toward that end. The convention adopted a civil rights resolution pledging an intensified drive to "fully secure equal rights for Americans in every field of life."

The Congress of Racial Equality stepped up its sit-in demonstrations at Baton Rouge, La., hitting segregated lunch counters at sev-

Two Women Stuck in a Phone Booth

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—City patrolmen Mickey Pyburn and Leon Musgrove were cruising in their patrol car when they received instructions:

"Car 1, go to 20th and Charlotte. There's a woman stuck in a telephone booth."

That was just half the story. There were two women.

"They were so embarrassed when we finally got the door open that they hardly stopped long enough to say anything to us," the officers said.

Actress, Arkansas Native, Dies

NEWMAN, Ga. (AP)—Mrs. Wayne P. Sewell, an actress of the 1920s and creator of the Betty Jan Dunaway Gardens near here, died today after an extended illness. She was 82.

Mrs. Sewell, the former Betty Jane Dunaway, started the gardens more than 30 years ago, and they are now an outstanding Georgia tourist attraction.

Born near Conway, Ark., Mrs. Sewell attended the University of Arkansas and the Curry School of Expression in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Sewell performed in the 1920s in Lyceum and chautauque circles—a type of theatrical reading which included a monologue. She married actor Wayne P. Sewell of Newman, and they later produced amateur theatricals.

Woman Charged in Apartment Fire

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Mrs. Rosa Bell Byrd, 51, was held in Circuit Court on a charge of involuntary manslaughter by Municipal Judge Milton McLees today in connection with an apartment house fire which fatally burned an elderly man.

Police previously had booked her on counts of murder and arson, but these were dropped.

Henry Wallace, 72, died last Wednesday night in a fire which damaged the apartment building where both he and Mrs. Byrd and her husband lived.

Firemen said the fire started in Mrs. Byrd's apartment.

She said she was in another part of the building and did not know how the fire started.

No Man Can Judge Leader of Own Time

EDITOR'S NOTE—The promise of active, vigorous leadership was a persistent note in John F. Kennedy's campaign. How successful has he been translating pledge into reality? This is the fourth of five articles on the President's performance in his 11 months in office.

By ARTHUR EASON

WASHINGTON (AP)—No man can properly judge the leaders of his own time.

Few around Abraham Lincoln, so savagely ridiculed by his contemporaries, could have guessed that in 100 years he would be so venerated.

Even fewer of those around the respected U. S. Grant could have thought that history would rate the general's presidential ability so low.

A politician, history is a luxury; he must make his decisions now.

And each of us—with our varying backgrounds that influence, and often imprison, our thinking, can render nothing better than on-the-spot judgments on our leaders. Over the long haul how well we judge determines how well and where we are led.

But when we try to answer the question—how is John F. Kennedy doing after 11 months as President?—we quickly run into something hard to pin down and impossible to prove: the quality of the leadership he offers.

It was Kennedy who put this emphasis on leadership. A couple of examples from his speeches will recall the tone of his campaign.

Fort Worth, Kennedy said: "Lyndon Johnson and I do not promise a life of ease. We can not promise a solution to the problems which disturb our lives, but we can promise that if we are successful we can move with vigor and vitality on the problems which disturb us here and around the world."

In Hamtramck, Mich.: "The function of the President of the United States is to build a strong society here, to maintain full employment, to educate our children, to provide security for our aged citizens, to provide justice for the people, to build an image of a society on the move, so that people around the world who wonder what road they should take will decide: 'We want to go with the United States; they represent the future.'"

Obviously these goals are too great for the most daring and imaginative leader to reach in 11 months. But in this town you can get a first rate argument over whether Kennedy had made a decent beginning.

Those around Kennedy, naturally, insist he is on his way. Naturally, this is the President's own view.

At a news conference he was asked about his campaign promises, and whether he would change them if he were campaigning again.

"No," Kennedy said, "it would be exactly what it was. We have met a good many of these commitments and I am hopeful that before our term is ended that we will meet the others."

Republicans dutifully pecked away at Kennedy, although few so far as Rep. Walter H. Judd, R-Minn. "I say in dismay that he is a great deal weaker than I thought he would be," Judd told a GOP meeting in Minneapolis. "Mr. Kennedy won't let others make decisions and he won't make them himself."

Possibly the complaint heard most frequently, sometimes from those friendly to the administration, is that for all Kennedy's talk about this nation needing a strong sense of purpose it still seems to be drifting.

One of President Eisenhower's closest advisers says Kennedy was so convinced that Republicans over-organized the White House that he errs in the other direction.

"How do they assess their strength and assign priorities when the President thinks Cabinet meetings are a waste of time?" this person asked. "What are their main goals? Why, they're all main goals under this arrangement."

He paused, and then delivered the unkindest cut of all. "What they need, maybe only for four or five months, is a Sherman Adams type to give direction to the operation."

No one in the Eisenhower administration drew as heavy Democratic fire as Adams, who served as a sort of assistant president. Here, of all places, Kennedy is DELIGHTFUL international situation results when French preserves are used in an American pumpkin meringue pie.

least likely to copy his predecessor.

This same Republican says Kennedy's own behavior creates confusion.

"He is emphatic against a summit conference, and yet he goes to one. He is emphatic on Laos, and then he lets it trail off. He sends up a farm program, and says this is what he has to have, and when it's changed around completely, he says this is what he wanted after all."

"He says he wants a balanced budget and then he says, no, I don't. He talks about a missile gap and then one of his men says how strong we are. Which, of course, is true."

"It's no wonder the picture of Kennedy comes through a little smoky."

Those around the President aren't disturbed by criticism from an obviously partisan source, or by complaints from some Kennedy supporters who feel everything is moving too slowly.

Complacently they point to a Gallup opinion poll that shows 77 per cent approval of the way Kennedy is doing his job, 12 per cent disapproval, with 11 per cent undecided.

Politicians praise a poll when it's with them, and kick it when it's unfavorable. This is no exception.

John M. Bailey, Democratic National chairman, says: "If Kennedy were running for office now,

Big Increase in School Spending

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Education Department said today that Arkansas has quadrupled its school spending since the 1945-46 term.

Figure covering the 16-year period show $23.5 million in state and local funds were spent in 1945-46, compared to $93.5 million during the current year.

The figures, compiled by department personnel, also show the percentage of the state's general revenue which is allocated to education has increased from 42 to 53 per cent during the period.

The state's share of the 1945-46 total was $14.4 million (42 per cent of all general revenues) and figure increased to $51.5 million (53 per cent) this year. The Education Department report said.

Local revenues climbed from $9.1 million to over $48 million during the same time.

The report said teachers received $13.7 million in salary 16 years ago, compared to nearly $61 million this year.

It noted, however, that Arkansas still ranks low among the states, both in average teacher salary and expenditure per pupil. Per pupil expenditure last year showed at $242, compared to a national average of $390.

When Eisenhower was rolling up big margins in similar polls, the Democratic reaction was: this only proves that Eisenhower is popular. It has nothing to do with leadership. Good leadership may require taking an unpopular stand.

At the very moment Kennedy was saying this country was standing still and a driving leader was needed to get it moving again, Eisenhower was doing fine in the polls.

But effective presidential leadership involves far more than one man.

Beginning with George Washington, critics have found the easiest way to hit a president is to shoot at those surrounding him.

In Kennedy's case, the complaint has usually been that the White House is overstocked with college professors.

But an official in a position to know says Kennedy is well pleased with his choices.

"Of course," he said, "he's more pleased with some than with others."

Of all the Democrats consulted on the Kennedy team performance only one had reservations.

After praising the brilliance of the White House help, he said: "My main complaint is, not one has had any administrative experience. They're really just boys."

But it's easy to criticize a president; it's harder to be one. And no one has learned that more quickly than John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

On July 25, at the end of a radio-television address, he said: "When I ran for the presidency of the United States I knew that this country faced serious challenges. But I could not realize, nor could any man realize who does not bear the burdens of this office, how heavy and constant would be those burdens."

Kennedy, who only six months before had spoken so confidently about leadership, now said: "I need your good will and your support and, above all, your prayers."

Next: World full of problems.

Quotas Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas cotton farmers gave overwhelming support Tuesday to continuation of the current marketing quota and price support programs next year. Farmers in Arkansas approved the measure in Tuesday's special election 11,409-256, for 97.8 per cent.

Need to Make Appointment to Be Sick

By JOY STILLET

NEW YORK (AP)—It's getting so you have to make an appointment in our house to be sick.

Not that I'm a hypochondriac, but I do have my pet little aches and pains I like to trot out into the limelight now and then. The trouble is, the limelight is usually already occupied by the big aches and pains claimed by other members of the family.

The juiciest cold I ever had coincided with a case of chicken pox contracted by our daughter. Instead of being able to take miserably to my bed I was forced to spend my days at her bedside reading dry fairy tales punctuated by wet sneezes.

I can't even have a headache in peace. Before the aspirin has time to open negotiations with a small hammer pounding inside my head my two children are hitting each other with large hammers in the first fight they have had in weeks.

There was the time I persuaded my doctor to let me go home from the hospital a day early, on the promise that I would stay in bed and be waited on. Well, that was the night both my husband and son came down with sore throats and temperatures alarmingly in the red. I spent the night commuting from one bedroom to the other as nurse instead of nurse.

The day that I burn my hand while cooking dinner is inevitably the one when nobody else can possibly do the dishes. Hubby has a meeting, the young lady of the household is taking a music lesson and a suddenly studious son has an important test coming up the next day.

While back, though, I really had it made. I had been chewed on by a king-size virus bug and for once I was sick enough for even my family to take notice. In fact, I was so leaden in the feet and light in the head I did something I'd never done before—called my husband at the office with a feeble plea for help.

"Hang on, honey," he offered encouragingly. "I'll be home just as soon as I can get there. Then you can just take it easy while I take over."

"At long last," I thought smugly as I waited, "now I'll be coded and fussed over."

Soon I heard a jaunty step, followed by a cheery greeting.

"Now," said my husband, "everything is under control—you just—"

Suddenly he paled and shot out of the room. Sometime later he wearily to the bedside.

"Move over," he muttered shakily. "Looks like I've got the virus reappeared, dragging himself too."

Guess who took care of whom that day?

Disarmament Committee Agreed on

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

The Soviet Union and the United States were reported agreed today on a resolution to have the U.N. General Assembly set up a new 18-nation committee to negotiate disarmament.

Informed diplomats said they expected it will be introduced in the assembly's Political Committee tonight after that committee votes on the pending proposals on Korea.

They said the resolution will ask the 18-nation committee to begin negotiations by March 31 and report progress to the 103-nation U.N. disarmament commission by June 1.

The committee would be asked to base its negotiations, they said, on a set of principles for general and complete disarmament that the Soviet Union and the United States agreed upon last September.

Santa Came But He Couldn't Play

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP)

Christmas came Sunday for 6-year old Freddy Leep, but he couldn't play with his toys.

Freddy is suffering from an advanced case of leukemia and is growing weaker every day. His Christmas party was scheduled for next Friday, but on the advice of his doctor, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Leep of Springdale, moved the party up to Sunday.

Although Freddy was too weak to play with his toys, he did enjoy looking at the Christmas cards he received. His parents say that more than anything else, he enjoys lying quietly and looking at the cards.

U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson told a reporter a Soviet-U.S. disarmament resolution would go in "tonight, I hope—God willing."

Word Battle Over Tariff Policy

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The battle of words over tariff policy—growing louder day by day—is giving way temporarily to some action, House subcommittee.

Tariff cutting by the United States and Western Europe is at the agreement stage. And some 1958, the President was given power to negotiate cuts up to 20 per cent over the four-year extension undersecretary of state, gave the period on a long list of products, tariff-cutting powers given the new pact would about exhaust the tariff-cutting powers given the President by Congress in 1958.

Long negotiations at Geneva by the 40 nations in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) have been hammering out this fifth round of tariff cuts since GATT came into being in 1948.

The actual tariff cutting by the United States and the European Common Market would be under the old rules granted Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration. It is apart from the new and more sweeping authority President Kennedy says he will seek from Congress early in the upcoming session.

The GATT agreement will be classified as action. But it is likely to set off even more words in the angry encounters in Congress that everyone in the long run, they argue.

When the U.S. reciprocal trade agreement stage. And some 1958, the President was given power to negotiate cuts up to 20 per cent over the four-year extension undersecretary of state, gave the period on a long list of products, tariff-cutting powers given the new pact would about exhaust the tariff-cutting powers given the President by Congress in 1958.

Further cuts, as hammered out in Geneva, doubtless will add to the list of complaints.

And the still broader powers to lower protective barriers here United States and the European Common Market would be under the old rules granted Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration. It is apart from the new and more sweeping authority President Kennedy says he will seek from Congress early in the upcoming session.

The coming session of Congress. Those favoring the United States "being all the tariff cutting powers granted in 1958, say that such bargaining is necessary if Americans are to get trade barriers against their goods lowered in other lands. Freer moving of goods in world trade will help everyone in the long run, they argue.

And they make much of a new factor that has arisen since the 1958 action. That is the prospering of the European Common Market. Six nations—France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—are gradually building a common tariff wall against outsiders while moving in stages to eliminate any tariff barriers among themselves.

Britain is negotiating membership in this trading club. Other European nations are expected to follow suit.

The result, when and if, would be to form one solid Western European trading bloc—with the United States, Canada, Japan and other nations on the outside looking in.

The aluminum industry in Arkansas has a payroll of about $10 million dollars a year and spends about twice that amount for services within the state.

Arkansas ranks ninth in the production of oil, with a production of about thirty million barrels annually.

GOLDEN GLOW OF QUALITY

That's what Skinner Macaroni has. A rich appetizing color. A difference you can see and taste. Skinner uses only 100% amber durum wheat—the very best for macaroni products. Next time you buy macaroni, buy Skinner. It tastes better, cooks better, looks better.
